ANGEL ON CHINA

Former Minister Opposed to the Idea of Partitioning Empire.

WOULD RESULT IN LONG WARS But if Legations Are Destroyed Punishment Should Follow.

ORIGIN OF THE TROUBLE

CHICAGO, July 20.—A special to the Times-Herald from Ann Arbor, Mich., says: "I, for one, hope the integrity of the Chinese nation will be upheld," said James B. Angell, president of the University of Michigan and former minister to the Chinese empire, in an interview. "I should be sorry, indeed," President Angell continued, "to see China broken up into fragments. It is best for her and best for the interests of the world that she be not dismembered. I cannot see how the powers can keep from warfare among themselves if they partition China. "But the powers must do something, and there is little doubt as to the ultimate outcome. Every foreigner must be guaranteed a safe residence at Peking, even if the powers have to destroy the entire Chinese empire to accomplish it. There is not a nation which has had a representative there which will be content with less than that. Question of indemnity. "Again, the question of indemnity will arise, and I believe China will be forced to pay for all losses incurred. And I am sure, if the press and her advisers are found to be in any way responsible for this, one of the most atrocious crimes against international law that has ever been committed since international law has been known, it means the cleaning out of the whole establishment. The person of an ambassador is sacred. He is free to go where he pleases, and his government is guaranteed with his own home government is guaranteed. To violate this as usurped as those who are in power, or who usurp power in China, have done so to arouse the wrath of the civilized world, and nothing short of the wiping out of those responsible will satisfy the nations against which the crime was committed. "What were the exact causes and conditions that led to the present trouble?" President Angell was asked. Cause of the trouble. "The primary cause is the extreme hatred which the Chinese bear toward all foreigners. There are great differences in the ideas and the ideals between the Europeans and Asiatic peoples. No intelligent foreigner can travel through Asia without noticing them. "Are the Chinese adverse to the introduction of the Christian religion? "No, not in that broad sense. They do not seem to fear for the permanency of their religion. It is not their religion that missionaries and the Christian religion as such as it is that the missionaries are foreigners. "It is probably true, as the natives assert, that some bad Chinamen go into the Christian church to secure the immunities assured converts by the treaty of 1858, when all native Christians were given the same protection as the missionaries themselves. Fear of dismemberment. "A more serious cause of the uprising is the widespread suspicion among the natives since the Japanese war that the foreigners are going to partition China. It is not strange that all these conditions caused friction and excitement. "Then, two years ago the young emperor tried to introduce western civilization and reform. He was conservative and he held up their hands in horror and the reform party was quickly subdued. "These same conservatives do not hesitate to create the impression that it is due to foreign influences that the flame of rebellion is being fanned. The Chinese want to be left to themselves, and the world's forefingers sum up the great cause of the present trouble.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Opening Session of the M. E. Church Organization. Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. STANFORD, Va., July 18, 1900. The Sunday school convention of the Baltimore conference, M. E. Church, South, met here yesterday. While Washington and other cities on the seaboard were sweltering in a temperature approaching the century mark the breezes from the Blue Ridge tempered the atmosphere of this valley and enabled large audiences to listen to the program at the three sessions of the day with a degree of comfort. About 110 delegates from out of town have registered and others are still arriving. The people of the city have attended in large numbers. At the morning session Rev. F. J. Prettvman, pastor of the Methodist Church in this city, delivered an address of welcome, which was responded to by the president of the convention, Mr. M. L. Walton of Woodstock, Va. Mr. Walton said that Methodism and Methodist preachers are going everywhere and making their influence felt everywhere. He was thankful that in the Methodist economy there are no churches without pastors, because of the itinerant system. He said that the Sunday school is by far the most important of the young people's organizations of the day. The committee on permanent organization reported a list of officers which was unanimously adopted by the convention. M. L. Walton was again made president and W. W. Millan of Washington was elected secretary for the eighth successive year. W. F. Hammer of Epworth Church, Washington, was chosen as vice president for the Washington district. Rev. Chas. D. Bulla of St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, spoke at the morning session on "The Teacher's Art." At the afternoon session Mrs. J. E. Reeves of Washington gave an interesting talk on "The Place of Nature in Sunday School Work." She pointed out the strong vein of simple illustrations from nature which runs through the whole of the teachings of Christ, who she said was the greatest nature teacher. Rev. Dr. Atkin of Nashville, Tenn., arrived at noon and occupied a place on the program of the afternoon. At night Prof. H. M. Hamill of Jacksonville, Ill., spoke to the largest audience of the day on "How to Make a Sunday School Go." Dr. J. H. Boyd of Alexandria, presiding elder of the Washington district, is an interested attendant and is spending the time between sessions in mingling with his old parishioners.

INDemnITY ASKED.

Damages Claimed for Detention of French Blockade Runners. The General Transatlantic Company, through Ambassador Cambon, has filed with the State Department a claim for 1,500,000 francs as indemnity for losses suffered in the seizure and detention of two of its vessels, the Monoubia and Lafayette, during the early days of the Spanish-American war. The vessels were seized while trying to run the blockade established by this government at the port of Havana, the claim set up by them being that they were not aware of the fact that war had been declared. Both vessels were afterward released, and the company now seeks reparation for their detention. The correspondence regarding the seizure of the Lafayette begins on the 6th of May, 1898. The claim has been referred by Secretary Hay to the court of claims with the following statement: "Inasmuch as the claimant has submitted no evidence of the damages suffered in consequence of the seizure, and no pertinent questions of law and fact are involved, and as the decision will affect a class of cases and furnish a precedent for the future action of this department in the adjustment of a class of cases, the claims are hereby referred to the court of claims for trial and adjudication. In the event of a favorable decision of the court, copies of the papers, briefs and documents pertaining to the claims."

Robbery Reported.

Edward W. Johnson, colored, who keeps a grocery store at 3d and R streets northwest, reported to the police last night that he had been robbed of nearly $400. The money, he reported, was tied in a handkerchief and placed under a pillow in a room on the second floor. During the day the grocer was in the store, while his wife was in the back yard washing. Between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon the money was missed and the police were informed of the loss. Advertisements are received at The Star's branch office, Huddleston's Pharmacy, corner 22d and P streets, at regular rates. No charge for messenger. Samuel Johnson, colored, fifty-two years old, whose home is in Willow Tree was taken sick near 7th and G streets northwest about 12:30 o'clock this morning. The police removed him to the Emergency Hospital.
